6 b For those who act with fidelity, all who practice righteousness, will prosper in their affairs.*

7 “Give alms from your possessions. Do not turn your face away from any of the poor, so that God’s face will not be turned away from you.c

8 Give in proportion to what you own. If you have great wealth, give alms out of your abundance; if you have but little, do not be afraid to give alms even of that little.

9 You will be storing up a goodly treasure for yourself against the day of adversity.d

10 For almsgiving delivers from death and keeps one from entering into Darkness.

11 Almsgiving is a worthy offering in the sight of the Most High for all who practice it.e[1]

If I am called to serve you in Israel on the day of your crucifixion and resurrection, am I to relive the events that have already occurred? And if I am prepared to hear your emergent prophecy, then delivered to return to my present; thou shalt not return. Then I am unprepared but Jesus is prepared for you, and that is all the matter in existence. And if I should fall back on my preeminent unexistent participles. Jesus is prepared for You.
